ELIGIBILITY

Eligibility for the Pacific Music Awards is defined by the Pacific Music Awards Trust to be:

1. RECORDINGS

- a) Only recordings (singles, EPs, or albums) released in New Zealand during the period of 1 January 2023 – 31 December 2023 are eligible. Except for those recordings entered for the Best International Pacific Artist – which can be released in NZ and/or anywhere outside of New Zealand, during the same eligible period.
- b) All recordings must be publicly available for sale. Sales can be through physical and/or digital outlets, artist websites or directly at artist performances.
- c) An album constitutes audio recordings (or a single audio recording) with a playing time of over 25 minutes or of five different songs or more. Videos included on an album will not be considered when determining the duration of the album or the total number of tracks on an album.
- d) 'Release' is defined as the date the recording was first officially available for sale
- e) Re-released recordings are not eligible. This includes 'deluxe', 'bonus disc', 'tour edition' versions of previously released recordings.
- f) Unless otherwise specified, so called 'Best Of' or 'Greatest Hits' albums are not eligible. For the avoidance of doubt a new recording featured on a best of or greatest hits album may be eligible as a single, however the album will remain ineligible.
- g) Where the entered release comprises more than one disc, the discs must be sold only as 'one set' to qualify.
- h) AI Generated recordings are not eligible for any award category. AI Generated recorded music product means music that is composed, produced, or generated by artificial intelligence systems using algorithms and machine learning techniques to analyse vast amounts of existing music data and generate new compositions / recordings based on patterns, styles, and structures found in the data. Elements of AI can be used by nominees in creating and/or performing eligible recorded music product but cannot be the sole or core component. Human authorship is essential and for any recorded music product to be eligible the primary creative contributor(s) must be human.

- i) A single is an individual recording and may have been released as part of a physical or digital EP/album, a physical single or digital bundle or as an individual digital track.
- j) Unless otherwise specified, multi-artist compilations are not eligible. For the avoidance of doubt, if multiple artists contribute individual tracks to an album project and are listed individually on the album packaging, the project will be considered a multi-artist compilation. If multiple artists collaborate on an album and the album packaging only refers to a single group, artist or producer's name, this will be considered as an album by a single group, or artist and therefore eligible. To ensure a group or artist is eligible in these situations, the Pacific Music Awards Trust recommends that special attention be paid to how songs and guest artists are billed on the album artwork and/or packaging.
- k) Any entry that does not comply with proper copyright licensing conditions i.e. any clearances or permissions required from copyright owners, APRA|AMCOS or Recorded Music NZ Ltd may be disqualified from judging.
- l) The Pacific Music Awards Trust and Recorded Music NZ Ltd are to be indemnified from any subsequent action, that may be directed against either the Pacific Music Awards Trust or Recorded Music NZ Ltd, should any entries be found to not conform with standard copyright licensing conditions.
- m) Entering the Pacific Music Awards does not affect entry into the Aotearoa Music Awards.

3.ELIGIBILITY

All entries will be reviewed for eligibility by the Eligibility Sub-Committee of the Pacific Music Awards Trust, which reserves the right to make final judgment on category, recording and nominee eligibility. The Eligibility Sub- Committee will provide notice citing reasons for any entries being deemed ineligible. The nominator will have five (5) days from such notice to respond, at which time the Eligibility Sub-committee will review the entry and make a final decision.

4.JUDGING

The Pacific Music Awards Trust selects and confirms an independent panel of judges, to judge all the entered categories. The judging panel is comprised of representatives from the music industry – and may include artist, producers, songwriters, industry representatives, music media representatives: radio/TV/online. The identity of the judges will remain confidential. Please note the Pacific Music Awards Trustees are not part of the judging panel.
